

A Sampling of Tools and Terms

A purpose for using a Tool List is to enable newcomers to more easily and rapidly participate in a Recovery meeting. With this in mind Recovery International encourages you to use this list when you initially attend our meetings, until you feel comfortable without it. Your Group Leader may have other guidelines for you regarding the use of this list in meetings. We are glad that you are here and encourage you to participate and endorse for your participation!

*These tools are quoted or adapted from Dr. Low's books: Mental Health Through Will Training (MH), Selections from Dr. Low's Works (SEL) and Manage Your Fears, Manage Your Anger (MYF). Citations to Dr. Low's books are listed for each tool. Many other tools can be found in these books.*

Some Basic RI Terms

Angry Temper — negative judgments (resentment, impatience, indignation, disgust, hatred) directed against another person or situation.

Fearful Temper — negative judgments (discouragement, preoccupation, embarrassment, worry, hopelessness, despair, sense of shame, feelings of inadequacy) directed against oneself.

Averageness — most of the things we experience, including nervous symptoms are average — most people have experienced them. Only our tendency to work them up makes them seem exceptional to us.

Self-endorsement — self-praise for any effort to practice the RI method. We recognize the value of every effort we make regardless of the result.

Sabotage — when we ignore or choose not to practice what we have learned in RI. When we do not do what is best for our mental health.

Trivialities — the everyday events and irritations of daily life. Compared to our mental health, most events are trivial

Inner Environment — everything inside your self: feelings, sensations, thoughts, impulses and muscles.

Outer Environment — everything outside your self: places, people, events, and the past.

Spotting — identifying a disturbing feeling, sensation, thought or impulse, previously unseen...then applying the right Recovery tools.
