

EVIDENCE-BASED PEER PRACTICES

SHARE! Offers Research Opportunities

SHARE! makes a special effort to partner with researchers as all of SHARE!'s programs are informed by research.

Past collaborations include:

- a) SHARE! arranging for surveys to be filled out by 100 to 200 SHARE! participants,
- b) reviewing manuscripts on self-help related topics,
- c) being primary informants for promising self-help support group practices and
- d) allowing students to study SHARE!'s structure and management.

If you have an idea, we are happy to discuss it with you! Call (310) 846-5270 to speak to someone today regarding how SHARE! can partner with you on your research.
